Report by Greg Myddelton
Enquiries to Greg Myddelton (greg.myddelton@essex.pnn.police.uk)

1. Purpose of report

- 1.1. To seek approval for the allocation of £2,500 in the form of a crime and disorder reduction grant from the 2015-16 Victims Fund to Brake.

2. Recommendations

- 2.1. Approve payment to the road safety charity Brake as a contribution to their national helpline and victim support packs.

3. Benefits of Proposal

- 3.1. Brake provides specialist support for bereaved and seriously injured road crime victims in partnership with police. Victim support packs are given to bereaved families by police promptly following every road death, in line with police protocols. They provide advice on CJS procedures, practical matters, and emotional comfort. The national helpline uses trained professionals to provide needs-orientated support, signposting, information and advocacy on emotional, practical, domestic and procedural matters, often supporting victims through CJS procedures and liaising with police and other officials on families' behalf.

4. Background and proposal

- 4.1. Brakes support packs and helpline are part-funded by the Ministry of Justice

5. Police and Crime Plan

- 5.1 Supports priorities in the Police and Crime Plan as follows;
- Supporting victims of crime
 - Improving road safety

6. Police Operational Implications

6.1 No operational impact

7. Financial Implications

7.1 The PCC would fund an £2,500 grant to Brake.

8. Legal Implications

8.1 The award of the grant is subject to the PCC's standard funding agreement.

9. Staffing and other resource implications

9.1 There are no staffing issues

10. Equality and Diversity implications

10.1 There are no equality and diversity implications

Report Approval

The report will be signed off by the Chief Executive and CFO and the PCC Solicitor where legal implications arise.
